

Distributed Master of Engineering Management Program (d-MEMP)
Pratt School of Engineering
Duke University

Estimated Part-Time Student Expenses for 2017-2018 Academic Years

Tuition:	$52,488 ($13,122 per semester)*
Transcript Fee:	$40
Room and Board	$2,970 ($990/residency)
Books	$1,240
TOTAL:	$56,738

*Students typically take 2 courses per semester.

Tuition increases occur each May.

The expected course load for d-MEMP students is 2 courses (6 credits) per semester and the expected program duration is 4 semesters. Students taking fewer than 2 courses (6 credits) may pay $2,187 per unit.

No tuition is charged for course credits received for internship or residency courses.

There is no charge for Registration for students in the MEM program.

Tuition

Tuition is charged on a per semester basis, based on 2 courses per semester. The tuition per semester for 2017-2018 is $13,122.

Transcript Fee

All entering students will be charged in the fall 2017 semester a one-time mandatory fee of $40 for transcripts. This fee entitles the student to an unlimited number of Duke transcripts.

Transportation and Parking

d-MEMP students will be responsible for arranging their own travel to Duke, but transportation and parking will be provided once on campus.

Payment of Accounts

The Office of the Bursar will issue invoices to registered students for tuition, fees, and other charges approximately four to six weeks prior to the beginning of classes each semester. The total amount due on the invoice is payable by the invoice late payment date which is normally one week prior to the beginning of classes. A student is required to pay all invoices as presented and will be in default if the total amount is not paid in full by the due date. A student in default will not be allowed to receive a transcript of academic records or receive a diploma at graduation. Inquire at the Bursar's Office (919) 684-3531, for information on the following: Monthly Payment Option; Late Payment Charge; Refunds for Withdrawal from School during fall and spring semesters.